Corn Pain Stopped Quick

Corns Lift Right Off With "Gets-It,"
Blessed relief from corn pains is simple as A B C with "Gets-It."
When you've been limping around for days trying to get away from a heart-drilling corn or bumpy callous, and everyth you've tried has only made it we are not en you put some "Gets-it" on one the pain cases right away, and the corn paels right off like a banasa skin—"ain" it a grand and heavenly feeling?"

"Gets-it has revolutionized the corn history of the world. Millions use it and it never fails. Ladies wear smaller shoes and hove pain-free feet. We old fellows and voung fellows forget our toes and feel frisky as colis. Everybody with a corn or callons needs. Gets-it. We will all walk about and enjoy surselves as we did without corns. ANOTHER APPOINTMENT FOR W. E. JACKSON

Is Made a Deputy Sheriff for Windham County.

According to the November health bulletin issued by the state health de-partment the mortality summary for October was as follows: Total deaths for October 1,500, death rate 14.9, ave-rage death rate for October last five William E. Jackson stated Monday norning that he has had still another appointment. Sheriff Charles A Gates of Windham county appointed him on Saturday a Sputy sheriff of the county. This gives Mr. Jackson at least three offices with another one coming, that of deputy sheriff for New London county. This makes rase death rate for October last five years 13.4, annual death rate 1916 16.3, deaths from communicable diseases 185; per cent. of total deaths 12.3, deaths under one year 277, rate per thousand births 92.

Norwich had the largest number of deaths during the month of any town New London county. This makes him a county detective and a deputy sheriff in Windham county and a county detective in New London deaths during the month of any town in eastern Connecticut and New London was second. The deaths reported to the state department of health for the month of October, also births and marriages for September were as folcounty detective in New London county, with the appointment of deputy sheriff of New London county quite probable. Mr. Jackson is now located in New London and will move his family there in the spring.
